

Security Forum Sept 2002

Ian Dobson

i.dobson@opengroup.org

THE Open GROUP

Security Forum - Mission

---

promote effective information security as an essential quality throughout all information systems architectures, to enable timely delivery of the right data to the right people.

the outside ...
- networks ...
- Internet ...
- Web ...

the inside

Secure
Boundaryless Information Flow
means disclosure only to the right people ... wherever they are

Security Forum - Vision

---

- ❑ Address all aspects of information security in distributed computing environments and mobile/wireless computing.
- ❑ Global coverage – includes policy and legal/regulatory as well as technical issues.
- ❑ Recognition that the prime business driver is management of risk in eBusiness – so close relationship with Active Loss Prevention Initiative
- ❑ Business Managers have the knowledge and tools to manage the risks associated with the security of their IT systems through
  - Managers (business) guides to Security topics
  - A standards based infrastructure for
    - integration of security services
    - integration of the extended enterprise
  - Architecture guide enabling software architects & designers to design their own security systems to suit the needs of their own businesses

Security Forum - Roadmap

---

- Follow-on managers guides (in MGIS series):
  - Data Privacy (2002)
  - Use of PKI Technologies (2003)
  - Secure Email (2003)
  - Others ...
- Security Design Patterns V1 technical guide (2002)
  - Version 2 (2003)
- Identity Management in extended enterprise
- Access Control business scenario
- Digital Rights Management White Paper (2002)
- Intrusion Attack workshop (2003)
  - Follow-on managers guide (2003)