Notification to Edinburgh Summit Attendees

Firstly, we would like to thank you for attending The Open Group Summit in Edinburgh last week. We hope that you had an informative and inspirational event and that you have travelled home safely. We also wanted to make you aware that we have been notified that a small number of our attendees have been exposed to, and contracted, COVID as a result of their time in Edinburgh. Please do take care of yourselves, and we would advise that if you feel you have symptoms of the COVID virus, then please do follow guidance from your local health authority and look after yourselves, your family, and colleagues. We do hope that this has not too adversely impacted your enjoyment of our Edinburgh event and we look forward to welcoming you to our future Summit in Houston this October.
